Tuesday night everyone got a small dose of what's to come in the future of Allthatsfab events. We've always managed to attend all types of events that are taking place out here in NYC but the other night readers and friends managed to attend the premier of "Fab Life event" hosted by MTV's Buttahman and none other than All That's Fab's Martine, Aura, Ian Jarrell and new to the team Simone Carlene and actor Emmi Grullon. The party turned out great, with good drinks and a lot of industry heads. Notable attendees included recording artist Ciara, MTV's Sway and a few other members of the MTV news crew.

Come join us at our next Fab Life Tuesday event! RSVP at: VIP@VELOURNYC.COM, and arrive early!
